HYPERION.

The Boston Herald of September 18 in an editorial pays the following compliment to "The Fatal Card," which will be seen to-night: "The Boston Museum has seldom been so jammed as it was Monday night, and the moments of dense darkness, with the clamor of the gallery gods, the rattle and bang of the orchestra, produce a sensation from which one does not easily recover. From the moment the curtain rose till it fell on as original a last act as has been written, it was a night not to be forgotten. No wonder 'The Fatal Card' has drawn a fortune."

Messrs. Chambers and Stephenson have hit the popular taste by force of novel situations, the deepest dyed crime and bright comedy business. Everybody within a radius of twenty miles of Boston will travel to town to see "The Fatal Card." Sale of seats now open.

Thomas G. Seabrooke seems to have made a great success in his latest production, "Baby Mine," which comes to the Hyperion Friday and Saturday evenings. The Chicago Chronicle waxed enthusiastic in speaking of Mr. Seabrooke's engagement there, and said: "If he were not a comedian, we should say Mr. Seabrooke was a hypnotist, so positive is his power to interest and entertain spectators. Of course, behind all, is the gift of heaven of humor, without which, the greatest actor cannot be a comedian." Sale of seats now open.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The Grand Opera house was packed again last night to see the "Struggle of Life." The scenery used in this production is very fine. First, the eyes fall on a scene of wealth and luxury, where the interior of a mansion of one of our large city princes is actually presented. Then, one is whirled down town to City Hall Park, a picture true in every detail, its perspective showing Park Row, home of the giant daily newspapers, in the mid-distance stands the celebrated city hall, the home of Tammany, and the foreground is Broadway, the city's great commercial artery; then we are carried to Battery Park, a fine view of the harbor shipping and the Statue of Liberty; up town again to Fifth avenue, the famous cathedral, then down by the river front to the Thieves' Delmonico as Ruiger's Slip, where the lights of Brooklyn are reflected in the river, spanned by the world famous bridge--all these scenic pictures are reproduced with a remarkable degree of accuracy, while the acting company is the best ever seen in the play.

The election returns were read between the acts by Press Agent E. G. Morton. There will be a matinee to-day. Prices, 10 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents.

"The Cotton King" will be the attraction the last three days this week. There is every reason why it should meet with popular success again, having played in Boston over three months, also New York and Chicago, and the press of each city conceded it to be the best melodrama presented in years, and for its present road tour Manager Brady has secured a perfect company.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

On all sides is heard praise of the excellent performance that is being given this week at Poli's Wonderland theater. Mr. Watson and Miss Hutchings, who head the bill, make fun by the wholesale in their bright German comedietta, with its bright situations and startling finish. Edwin Latell also keeps everybody in jolly humor with his catchy comedy and splendid execution on many musical instruments. Mr. Latell excels particularly on the saxophone and last evening he made a hit on the disappointed politicians in the audience by playing "The Heart Bowed Down." The singing done by the Metropolitan Three is exceptionally good. This act is of added interest also for the reason that Miss Adele Reno, one of the three, is a native of this city, being known as the phenomenal child pianist in her early life in New Haven. Altogether it is one of the best performances of the season at the Wonderland.

AT ST. PAUL'S PARISH HOUSE.

DIGESTION AND WORK.

How Sick People May Save Their Energy.

It is as hard work for some people to digest their dinner as it is for a normal man to walk ten miles.

"After dinner rest awhile." This is an old saying. It means that if after eating a heavy meal you try to do hard work you will exhaust all your energy.

There will be none left for your stomach. Your stomach needs energy to work just as your leg or arm does.

Sick people want energy. They seldom have enough for their stomach. Their digestion is out of order and they want to know the reason. It's simple enough as we have told it.

What they ought to do is to save their stomachs from hard work until it is capable of doing it, just as they rest their tired backs by lying down.

This they can do by using artificially digested food. Shaker Digestive Cordial contains such food; not only this, but it is capable of digesting other foods in the stomach.

Shaker Digestive Cordial affords nourishment and creates new energy as soon as it is swallowed. Ordinary food first has to be digested. Shaker Digestive Cordial while creating new energy does not expend any. It gives the stomach no work to do. It will make thin people fat. Sick people are naturally thin. Getting thin is a sign of sickness. A person may be born thin, and naturally remain so. Such a one is not necessarily sick. All druggists keep it and a 10 cent sample bottle may first be tried.

IN TROU OUR TIMES.

A Prominent New Haven Man's Experiences in Kansas in the Fifties.

We, the undersigned, personal friends of Mr. L. B. Hinman, having heard in part his experiences in Kansas during the fifties, and of his presence at the sacking and burning of Lawrence, as well as the efforts then made to prevent the extension of slavery in that state, respectfully request him to deliver a lecture at Warner hall, December 13, 1895, for the purpose of relating in full his remembrances of those troublesome and bloody times. (Signed)

CLOSE OF THE PEOPLES' COURSE.

A story illustrated from life and endorsed by Howells, Stedman, Stockton and Matthews forms the closing feature of the closing entertainments given at the Grand avenue Congregational church this fall. A spectator said that one seemed to see the figures move, and it was hard to believe that Mr. Dewey was not actually sitting there, talking to Miss Jerry. Mr. Dewey posed for this scene in his private office at the Grand Central station. The outdoor scenes include Fifth avenue by moonlight, Broadway, Madison Square, etc., and through all is woven a charming love story. The story has had great success and is the novelty of the season. This closing entertainment in the People's course will be given at the Grand avenue Congregational church Thursday evening.

THEIR THIRD ANNUAL.

West Side Club's Reception To-night.

The West Side club's third annual full dress reception will be held in Harmonie hall to-night.

It will be a very pretty affair.

The hall will be prettily decorated, and with the charming young ladies and gallant young men will make a very imposing scene.

The music will be by the Philharmonic orchestra.

THE MILLS MEETINGS.

A Union Meeting Preliminary Thereto To-day.

A union meeting of the co-operating churches preliminary to the Mills meetings will be held this afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock at the First M. E. church.

AT THE PADERSKI MATINEE.

Among the prominent attractions of our city yesterday was a bevy of charming young ladies from the well known and fashionable boarding school of Mrs. Griswold, Boxwood, Old Lyme, Conn. There were about twenty-five in the party who, with their chaperons, were entertained at the New Haven house and attended the Paderski matinee in the afternoon. They were the center of a great deal of attention.
